

Domestic and Family Violence

ECHO Network

Mondays, 1 - 2pm via Zoom

Commencing Monday 25 October 2021

Session	Date	Topic	Didactic Presenter, Panellists
1	25/10/21	Identifying and responding to domestic family violence <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Key elements for providing a first line response.</li> </ul>	Presenter  Dr Jennifer Neil, General Practitioner, Senior Lecturer, Department of General Practice Monash University Panellists  Nino Di Pasquale, Director of Nursing – Mental Health, Barwon Health  Vida Luimaite, Family Violence Advisor Barwon Health  Nadia Jacobsen, Advanced Family Violence Practice Leader - Men's Perpetrator – The Orange Door, Barwon
2	01/11/21	Working with people who have used domestic and family violence <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Key elements for identifying patient presentations, narratives and behaviours that may be indicative of use of DFV and how to safely and sensitively respond.</li> </ul>	Presenter  Matt Addison - Counsellor, Clinical Supervisor, and Safer Families Researcher;  Adam Hasandedic - East Division Child Protection Panellists  Nino Di Pasquale, Director of Nursing – Mental Health, Barwon Health  Vida Luimaite, Family Violence Advisor Barwon Health

			Nadia Jacobsen , Advanced Family Violence Practice Leader - Men's Perpetrator – The Orange Door, Barwon
3	08/11/21	Providing trauma and violence informed care in a health setting <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Factors influencing a patient's experience of DFV, disclosure and help-seeking, principles of trauma and violence informed care and how it benefits facilitating disclosure, conducting safety assessments and providing early support.</li> </ul>	Presenter Kelsey Hegarty - GP, Professor Family Violence Prevention and Director of Safer Families Centre, University of Melbourne  Panellist/s Nino Di Pasquale , Director of Nursing – Mental Health, Barwon Health  Vida Luimaite , Family Violence Advisor Barwon Health  Nadia Jacobsen , Advanced Family Violence Practice Leader - Men's Perpetrator – The Orange Door, Barwon
4	15/11/21	Identifying and responding to child abuse and neglect <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Key steps for safe and appropriate first line response and pathways for children experiencing child abuse and neglect, including living with domestic and/or family violence)</li> </ul>	Presenter Deepthi Iyer - GP, Safer Families Training Facilitator;  Jacqueline Kuruppu - Child Abuse and Neglect Research Officer  Panellist/s Nino Di Pasquale , Director of Nursing – Mental Health, Barwon Health  Vida Luimaite , Family Violence Advisor Barwon Health  Nadia Jacobsen , Advanced Family Violence Practice Leader - Men's Perpetrator – The Orange Door, Barwon
* 2022 dates to be announced

Register: here

Contact: echo@westvicphn.com.au

*Cases for consideration and discussion by the expert panel can be submitted online here