 - 7.3.1.1 The notice of a general meeting must be given to all persons entitled to receive notice and must specify the place, the day and the hour of meeting and if the meeting is to be held in two or more places, the technology that will be used to facilitate the meeting, the general nature of the business to be transacted and any other matters as are required by the Corporations Act.
 - 7.3.1.2 The accidental omission to give notice of any general meeting to, or the non-receipt of a notice by, a person entitled to receive notice does not invalidate a resolution passed at the general meeting.
- 7.3.2 A Member is entitled to receive notice of and attend a general meeting.
- 7.3.3 A Member may waive notice of a general meeting by written notice to the Company.
- 7.3.4 A Member who has not duly received notice of a general meeting may, before or after the meeting, notify the Company of the Member's agreement to anything done.
- 7.3.5 A Member's attendance at a meeting of Members waives any objection which that person may have had to a failure to give notice, or the giving of a defective notice, of the meeting, unless the Member at the beginning of the meeting objects to the holding of the meeting.

7.4 Cancellation of General Meetings

- 7.4.1 The Board may cancel a general meeting, other than a general meeting which the Board is required to convene and hold under the Corporations Act.
- 7.4.2 The Board may cancel a general meeting if notice of the cancellation is given to all persons entitled to receive notice of the meeting at least two business days prior to the time of the meeting as specified in notice of meeting.
- 7.4.3 The Company may give notice of a cancellation or postponement or change of place of a general meeting as the Board resolves. Failure to give notice of a cancellation or postponement or change of place of a meeting of Members or the failure to receive any notice of the meeting does not invalidate the cancellation, postponement or change of place of a meeting or anything done (including the passing of a resolution) at a postponed meeting or the meeting at the new place.
- 7.4.4 The only business that may be transacted at a general meeting the holding of which is postponed is the business specified in the original notice calling the meeting.

7.5 Quorum at General Meetings

- 7.5.1 The Members at a general meeting may not transact any business except, subject to clause 7.7, the appointment of a Chair unless a quorum of Members is present by representative or proxy at the time when the meeting proceeds to business.
- 7.5.2 Each Member present by representative may only be counted once towards the quorum. If a Member has appointed more than one proxy, only one of them may be counted towards a quorum.
- 7.5.3 The Chair of a general meeting may require a person acting as a proxy of a Member at that meeting to establish to the Chair's satisfaction that the person is the person who is duly appointed to act. If the person fails to satisfy this requirement, the Chair may exclude the person from attending or voting at the meeting.
- 7.5.4 The quorum for a general meeting will be 20 of the total number of Members entitled to vote by representative or proxy at the meeting at the time.
- 7.5.5 If a quorum is not present within half an hour from the time appointed for the meeting or a longer period allowed by the Chair:
 - 7.5.5.1 If the meeting was convened by or on the requisition of Members, it must be dissolved.
- 7.5.6 Otherwise, it must stand adjourned to the same day in the next week at the same time and place or to another day and at another time and place determined by the Board.
- 7.5.7 If a meeting has been adjourned to another time and place determined by the Board, not less than seven days' notice of the adjourned meeting must be given in the same manner as in the case of the original meeting.

7.6 Quorum at adjourned general meetings

The quorum for an adjourned meeting will be determined in accordance with clause 7.5.4.

7.7 Chairing of meetings

- 7.7.1 Every general meeting must be chaired by a Chairperson.
- 7.7.2 If the Board has elected a Director as Chair under clause 13.5, that person is entitled to chair every general meeting.
- 7.7.3 If the Board has elected a Director as Deputy Chair under clause 13.5, that person is entitled to chair a general meeting if the Chair is not present within 15 minutes after the time appointed for the holding of a meeting or is unable or unwilling to act as Chairperson of a meeting.
- 7.7.4 If the Chair and Deputy Chair are both not present within 15 minutes after the time appointed for the holding of a meeting, or are unable or unwilling to act, a Director elected by those Directors present within 15 minutes after the time appointed for the holding of a meeting may act as Chairperson of the general meeting.

7.7.5 The Members present by representative or proxy at a general meeting must elect one of the Members present by representative or proxy to act as Chairperson at that meeting if either of the following applies:

7.7.5.1 The Chair and Deputy Chair are not present within 15 minutes after the time appointed for the holding of a meeting or are both unable or unwilling to act and all Directors present decline to act as Chairperson at the meeting; or

7.7.5.2 There are no Directors present within 15 minutes after the time appointed for the holding of the meeting.

7.8 Chairperson's powers

7.8.1 The Chairperson may temporarily vacate the chair at a general meeting in favour of another person present at any time nominated by him or her and for any reason they see fit, and must do so if the Members are voting on the Chairperson's election or re-election as a Director.

7.8.2 The Chairperson may determine the procedures to be adopted for proper and orderly discussion or debate at the meeting, and the casting or recording of votes at the meeting.

7.8.3 The Chairperson may make rulings without putting the question (or any question) to the vote if that action is required to ensure orderly conduct of the meeting.

7.8.4 The Chairperson may, subject to the Corporations Act, at any time terminate discussion or debate on any matter being considered at the meeting and require that matter to be put to a vote.

7.8.5 The Chairperson may refuse to allow debate or discussion on any matter which is not business referred to in the notice of that meeting or is not business of the meeting permitted pursuant to the Corporations Act without being referred to in the notice of meeting.

7.8.6 Subject to the terms of this Constitution regarding adjournment of meetings, the Chairperson's ruling on all matters relating to the order of business, procedure and conduct of the general meeting is final and no motion of dissent from a ruling of the Chairperson may be accepted.

7.8.7 The Chairperson may, in his or her absolute discretion, refuse any person admission to a general meeting, or expel the person from the general meeting and not permit them to return, if the Chairperson reasonably considers that the person's conduct is inappropriate. Inappropriate conduct in a general meeting includes:

7.8.7.1 The use of offensive or abusive language which is directed to any person, object or thing.

7.8.7.2 Attendance at the meeting while under the influence of any kind of drug, or using or consuming any drug at the meeting, including any alcoholic substance.

7.8.7.3 Possession of any article, including a recording device or other electronic device or a sign or banner, which the Chairperson considers is dangerous, offensive or disruptive or likely to become so.

7.8.8 The Chairperson may delegate any power conferred by clauses 7.8.1 - 7.8.7 to any person.

7.8.9 Nothing contained in clauses 7.8.1 - 7.8.7 limits the powers conferred by law on the Chairperson.

7.9 Adjournment of meetings

The Chairperson may, with the consent of any meeting at which a quorum is present, and must if so directed by the meeting, adjourn the meeting or any business, motion, question or resolution being considered or remaining to be considered at the meeting or any discussion or debate, either to a later time at the same meeting or to an adjourned meeting to be held at the time and place determined by the Chairperson.

7.9.1 The only business that may be transacted at any adjourned meeting is the business left unfinished at the meeting from which the adjournment took place.

7.9.2 When a meeting is adjourned for 30 days or more, notice of the adjourned meeting must be given as in the case of an original meeting.

7.9.3 Except when a meeting is adjourned for 30 days or more, it is not necessary to give a notice of an adjournment or of the business to be transacted at an adjourned meeting.

7.10 Voting on show of hands

7.10.1 At a general meeting a resolution put to the vote of the meeting must be decided on a show of hands, unless a poll is demanded before that vote is taken or before the result is declared or immediately after the result is declared.

7.10.2 If a poll is not duly demanded, a declaration by the Chairperson that a resolution has on a show of hands been carried or carried unanimously, or by a particular majority, or lost, and an entry to that effect in the book containing the minutes of the proceedings of the Company, is conclusive evidence of the fact without proof of the number or proportion of the votes recorded in favour of or against the resolution

7.11 Demand for a poll

7.11.1 A poll may be demanded by either:

7.11.1.1 The Chairperson.

7.11.1.2 A Member only in accordance with the Corporations Act.

7.11.2 The demand for a poll may be withdrawn.

7.11.3 The demand for a poll does not prevent the continuance of a meeting for the transaction of business other than the question on which a poll is demanded.

7.11.4 If a poll is duly demanded, it must be taken in the manner and, except as to the election of a Chairperson or on a question of adjournment, either at once or after an interval or adjournment or otherwise as the Chairperson directs. The result of the poll is the resolution of the meeting at which the poll is demanded.

7.11.5 A poll demanded on the election of a Chairperson or on a question of adjournment must be taken immediately.

7.12 Voting of Members

7.12.1 The Board may determine the means (including electronic) for the casting and recording of votes by Members on any resolution needed to be determined by the Company.

7.12.2 Subject to this Constitution, on a vote taken as a show of hands at a general meeting every Member present by representative or proxy has one vote.

7.12.3 On a poll at a general meeting every Member present by representative or proxy has one vote. For the avoidance of doubt, a person holding a proxy, has one vote for each Member for which the person holds a proxy in addition to any vote they are entitled to in their capacity as a Member.

7.12.4 If a proxy of a Member purports to vote in a way or circumstances that contravene the Corporations Act, on a show of hands the vote of that proxy is invalid and the Company must not count it. If a poll is demanded, votes which the Corporations Act require a proxy of a Member to cast in a given way must be treated as cast in that way.

7.13 Vote of the Chairperson at general meetings

The Chairperson of a general meeting is not entitled to a second or casting vote (in addition to any votes he or she may have as a representative or proxy of a Member).

7.14 Objections to voter qualification

7.14.1 No objection may be raised to the qualification of a voter except at the meeting or adjourned meeting at which the vote objected to is given or tendered.

7.14.2 An objection to the qualification of a voter must be referred to the Chairperson, whose decision, made in good faith, is final.

7.14.3 A vote not disallowed according to an objection as provided in this Constitution is valid for all purposes.

7.15 Mode of meeting for Members

7.15.1 A general meeting may be called or held using any technology consented to by all the Members. The consent may be a standing one. A Member may only withdraw their consent within a reasonable period before the meeting. The Members may otherwise regulate their meetings as they think fit.

7.15.2 Directors and Members are entitled to speak at a general meeting.

7.15.3 A person requested by the Board to attend a general meeting is entitled to speak at that meeting.

7.16 Resolution in writing

A resolution in writing signed by all Members entitled to vote on the resolution is to be treated as a determination of the Members passed at a meeting of the Members duly convened and held.

7.17 Form of resolution in writing

7.17.1 A resolution in writing may consist of several documents in like form, each signed on behalf of one or more Members, and if so signed it takes effect on the latest date on which a Member signs one of the documents.

7.17.2 If a resolution in writing is signed by a proxy of a Member, it must not also be signed by the appointing Member and vice versa.

7.17.3 In relation to a resolution in writing a document generated by electronic means which purports to be a facsimile of a resolution of Members is to be treated as a resolution.

8. Proxies and representatives

8.1 Proxies of Members

8.1.1 At meetings of Members each Member entitled to vote may vote in person or by proxy or by attorney.

8.1.2 Subject to the terms of their appointment a person attending as a proxy has all the powers of a Member, except where expressly stated to the contrary and in accordance with the Corporations Act.

8.1.3 The authority of a proxy for a Member to speak or vote at a general meeting to which the authority relates is suspended while the Member is present at that meeting.

8.2 Appointment of proxies

8.2.1 A Member may appoint another person as their proxy to attend and vote instead of the representative of the Member. A proxy need not be a Member, however:

8.2.1.1 A document appointing a proxy must be in writing, in any form permitted by the Corporations Act or in any form (including electronic) which the Board may determine or accept, and signed on behalf of the Member making the appointment.

8.2.1.2 A document appointing a proxy may specify the manner in which the proxy is to vote in respect of a particular resolution and, where the document so provides, the proxy is not entitled to vote on the resolution except as specified in the document.

- 8.2.1.3 Except as expressly provided by the document appointing a proxy, an appointment of a proxy confers authority to do all things that the Member can do in respect of a general meeting, including the Member's representative, except that the proxy is not entitled to vote on a show of hands.

8.3 Verification of proxies

- 8.3.1 Before the time for holding the meeting or adjourned meeting at which a proxy proposes to vote, the document appointing the proxy must be deposited with the Company
- 8.3.2 That document must either be:
 - 8.3.2.1 Received at the Company's Office, at a fax number at the Office or at another place, fax number or electronic address specified for that purpose in the notice convening the meeting not less than 24 hours before the time for holding the meeting; or
